Carmel Arts Council – June 2014

WHEN: June 2014

WHERE: Carmel Indiana

WHAT: The Carmel Arts Council, headquartered in Carmel, Indiana, is a non-profit 501 (c)3 organization whose mission is to encourage and promote the arts for all ages through leadership, financial and volunteer support in order to nourish a vibrant culture in the Carmel community.

1. World's Smallest Children's Art Gallery Exhibit – June

The World's Smallest Children's Art gallery will be closed the month of June for renovations.

The Carmel Arts Council will open its gallery Wednesday, July 2nd, 6 pm until 8pm with an exhibition of Carmel High School Art.

2. STREET FAIR:

Join us on June 7, 4-8:30 p.m. for our third annual STREET FAIR in collaboration with SoHo Cafe & Gallery. Live music by Henle & the Loops, performance by Indy Improv, door prizes, and great artist booths! Bring your lawn chair and enjoy the evening, sip a favorite beverage (beer, wine, smoothies, lattes?)-- a portion of the night's sales will benefit the Carmel Arts Council's scholarship program, local teacher grants, our high school division of the Arts Council, and other community projects!

Don't miss this annual favorite event!

3. Carmel Arts Council "Emerging Curators" Show

An Opening Night Reception will be held July 2, 6pm to 8pm, at the World's Smallest Children's Art Gallery, 40 West Main Street, Carmel, Indiana.

Two 2014 CHS graduates, Leo Biette and Ariana Nunes, are curating the art e exhibition entitled "Through the Eyes of Art-The Contemporary Perception of How We a View the Human Identity."
