WHEN: July 2015
WHERE: Carmel Indiana
WHAT: “A Splash of Carmel” Mural created by CACHD

Carmel, IN – CACHD – Carmel Arts Council High School Division has created a mural titled “A Splash of Carmel” on a building in the Monon Square Center. Thanks to SoHo Café, Porter Paints, Horton, Inc. and The Carmel Arts Council, these Carmel High School students will leave their positive mark in Carmel.

High School students, Dana Wang and Katie Voor designed and carried out the vision with other students. CACHD President, Sydney Hardwick organized all the painting sessions and gathered the teams of volunteer painters. It has been fun watching pedestrians come off the Monon Trail to help paint!

The mural – “A Splash of Carmel” is a 24-color mural and 3-D art will be added then they add old bicycle parts. The mural depicts highlights of the City of Carmel including the Palladium, the public library, the Koi pond, Clay Terrace and much more. These images are all interspersed with coffee flowing through out the city. Please come and join us!
